

[IMAGE]

Complete Masonry Veneer Wall Systems: Performance and Specification Part 2

Description: A complete wall system helps designers meet new building and energy codes while making the design process faster and simpler. The benefits of systemization are presented here in light of important changes in the 2015 IBC. A project example is provided to demonstrate how the height and area calculation process, prescriptive R-value requirements, and requirements for NFPA 285 are applied.

HSW:No

Duration: 1 hour(s)

Format: PDF